A Lesson for Girls.

It is natural for men to live summan—they can't help it, but they wouldn't be men if they dish't love themselves the best. If a your lass $5 he is willing to spend 50 on his assertment, but he want to repeat the other $50 on himself. The lesson for girls to lean is only to demand the 50 cents. Seriously speaking, however, a lady of delicate and weamandy tastes will not expect expensive presents from gentlement. If a lady wishes to command the respect and administrate of the gentlemen brends she will not person them to spend money more essarily on for account. If they are wealthy they will immerstant her effects, if they are poor they will impressed the state of the serious of the serious problems. If y describes made contained the serious independence, will place hereal independence.

Woman's Society.

Woman's Society.

What is it that makes all those men who habitually secretar with the makes all those men who habitually secretary associate with woman superier to these who do not? Solely because they are in the habit of free graess, continued conversablers with the other sex. Woman in this way lose their drivelly, their facilities are awakened, their delicates and prevailantles are awakened, their delicates and prevailantles are awakened, their delicates and prevailantles with their delicates and prevailantles are proposed to their delicates. The coin of the understanding and the heart thanges continually. Their suspecifies are rubbed off, their better materials published and hightened, and their tiches, like gold, is wrought into thee workmanchip by the forgers of woman than it ever could be by those of men. The frees and secretaries and sprace of a green, by study and hools of gold and precious wasters.

An Honest Grip. An Hennett Grip.

It is said that when President Arthur was at Cape May he received a card from a caller who was very nations to see him. On being his win in, the eithor proved to be a weather beaten, middle aged man, who grasped Mr. Arthur consistly by the hand and informed him that he "knowed" him as some as he "see on him."
